2. BACKGROUND

In October 2017 the Board of Directors of QESBA decided to undertake a strategic planning process for the 2018-2019 to 2020-2021 years. It commissioned a management consulting firm, KSAR & Associates, to assist it in developing the 2018-2021 Strategic Plan.

The purpose of QESBA's strategic planning process was to renew its future vision, direction, and priorities and to align its day-to-day operations with these. In so doing, QESBA's Strategic Plan positions the association to produce meaningful value for its members on an ongoing basis.

The strategic planning process offered QESBA the opportunity to

- (a) revisit and learn from its rich history, while
- (b) facing and addressing the significant transformational forces shaping the world of all its member boards and their students in the 21st century.

According to the Strategic Plan, moving forward, QESBA will continue to respond to the needs of its school board members. It will collaborate with a wide network of educational partners, including the Ministry of Education, to fulfill its mandate. It will continue to help its members:

- Provide student-centered educational services and learning environments which prepare students to live and thrive in a world being transformed by science, engineering, and technology, the rethinking of the economic order, and the imperative for greater social inclusion and development;
- Support the vitality and ongoing development of Quebec's Official Language Minority Community, especially by demonstrating the ongoing value and relevance of elected school boards;
- Demonstrate the quality of French language education in its schools;
- Address declining enrollment in a constructive and innovative manner.

It became quite clear that while QESBA's 2018-2021 Strategic Plan provides high level direction to the organization, it required a more detailed Action Plan to implement its goals and objectives.

3. INTRODUCTION

According to the Environmental Scan done by KSAR and Associates as part of the strategic planning process, English-speaking parents and students are generally well served by the English educational system. Indeed, the continuum of observations, especially during the in-depth interviews, ranged from well-served to very well-served. The English system performs well in relative terms. It compares very favorably to the majority system in Quebec and to education systems in other provinces and countries. The single most common reference point for this conclusion was the relatively high graduation rate for students of the English language education system.

The "Observations Emerging from the Environmental Scan" offer some guidance for the actions required of QESBA. According to the Environmental Scan, in addition to focusing on the quality of education in our system, QESBA needs to:

- Position itself in order to address the unique challenges that result from our reality as a minority educational system within a French speaking majority that also sees itself as a minority community within Canada and indeed North America
- "look Canada wide" for best practices and lessons learned, especially regarding minority language boards in other provinces
- Issue a "call to action" to ensure that the rights relating to English education in Quebec (including our Constitutional Rights) are better understood
- Strengthen our policy and advocacy capacity
- Increase collaboration across schools, school boards and regions
- Provide more professional training and development for School Commissioners
- Improve stakeholder outreach and communications

4. THE 2018-2021 STRATEGIC PLAN extended to 2024

(This section is drawn directly from the Strategic Plan)
